National Park Service Internship For Youth 2026 Apply Online

Description

The National Park Service (NPS) Internship for Youth program offers a unique opportunity for young individuals (ages 16-25) to contribute to the preservation and protection of our nation's natural and cultural treasures. Interns will gain hands-on experience while working alongside passionate park rangers and other professionals in various park settings across the country.

Responsibilities

- Assist with park operations, such as visitor services, resource management, and education programs.
- Participate in conservation projects like trail maintenance, habitat restoration, and historical site preservation.
- Collect data and conduct research in collaboration with park staff.
- Develop public outreach materials and participate in educational events.
- Engage with park visitors and share your knowledge and enthusiasm for the outdoors.

Qualifications

- Be 16-25 years old at the time of application.
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
- Demonstrate a strong interest in national parks and conservation.
- Possess excellent communication, teamwork, and problem-solving skills.

Experience

- Prior volunteer experience in a park setting or related field is a plus, but not required.

Skills

- Adaptability and ability to work effectively in diverse environments.
- Strong work ethic and commitment to learning new things.
- Ability to take initiative and work independently under supervision.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Physical fitness and ability to perform outdoor tasks in various weather conditions (may vary depending on specific internship).

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable experience and build your resume for future careers in conservation and related fields.
- Make a positive impact on the environment and contribute to the preservation of national parks.
- Network with park professionals and learn from experts in the field.
